

AAUW Arizona Fall Forum

"Now We Lead"

Saturday, November 9, 2024

9 a.m. - 3 p.m.

Ramada by Wyndham
Viscount Suites Tucson East Hotel
4855 E. Broadway Blvd.
Tucson, AZ 85711

"Now We Lead" features three dynamic speakers who, through interactive interviews and discussions on values and listening, will share their experiences and insights into leading organizations. Their people-focused, inclusive approach to leadership involves facilitating member development and participation to fulfill the purpose and mission of their organizations.

- Melissa LaDuke is on the Board of Directors of AAUW and serves as Chair of the Diversity, Inclusion, and Equity Committee. She currently serves on the faculty of the National Intelligence University in Bethesda, MD.
- Diana Charbonneau is the Corporate Learning Facilitator at Tucson Electric Power. She provides company personnel with the tools to elevate themselves in leadership and development, thereby successfully leading their projects and teams.
- Magdalena Verdugo is Chief Executive Officer for YWCA Southern Arizona, continuing the organization's mission to eliminate racism; empower women; and promote peace, justice, freedom, and dignity for all.

AAUW Arizona and Tucson Chapter leaders will participate in the program as interviewers and facilitators on the topics of Values and Listening. There also will be time during lunch to network with AAUW members and guests. A brief AAUW AZ business meeting is set for 9 a.m.

*It was the organizing committee's privilege to work with Linda Alepin, a nationally recognized author and educator - as well as AAUW Tucson branch member - while they developed the content of this program. Linda has graciously given us signed copies of her book, Shifting Context: Leadership Springs from Within. Pick up your copy at the conclusion of the program.*
